Profile

Lawyer and professor in the field of regulation and new technologies. Ph.D. and Master's degree from the Law School of the University of São Paulo. Founder of Data Privacy Brazil. Previously, I was a fellow at the Council of Europe's Personal Data Protection Department and a visiting researcher at the Center for Law, Technology and Society of the University of Ottawa.
In August 2021, I was appointed as a member of the Board of Directors of the Brazilian Data Protection Authority, as a representative of civil society and in 2024 I was reappointed for a second consecutive two-year term. Also, I acted as legal advisor to the Internet Steering Committee and to the Information and Coordination Center of Ponto BR, preparing regulatory impact analysis on disinformation, freedom of expression and the civil liability regime for Internet providers, privacy and personal data protection, cryptography, domain name systems, among other issues, which were part of the CGI.br agenda.
In February 2022, I was nominated by the president of the Brazilian Federal Senate as a member of the Jurists' Commission responsible for subsidizing the elaboration of the substitute draft for the Bill (No. 5051, of 2019), which aims to originate the Legal Framework for Artificial Intelligence in Brazil. Finally in March 2023, was appointed a member of the CNJ's Data Protection Commission (CPD/CN), responsible for proposing, regardless of provocation, guidelines with criteria on the application, interpretation, and adaptation of extrajudicial services to the General Law on Personal Data Protection.
Finally, in 2023, I was appointed to the Study Committee on Digital Integrity and Transparency on Internet Platforms of the Superior Electoral Court (TSE), established by Ordinance No. 997, And in 2024 I became co-chair of the G20 Inclusive Digital Transformation Task Force.
